News of The Diamond.

FRIDAY.

The Bourbonites made it two straights from Frankfort Friday afternoon when they won the last game of the series by a score of 7 to 2. The contest opened with a snap and vigor that bid fair to make the game one of the liveliest seen on the local lot this season, but when the locals took the lead in the second inning the result was never in doubt.

Yekes essayed to pitch for the Lawmakers but showed signs of weakness in the second inning, when he passed the first man up and allowed two hits. He was then relieved by Cramer who held the Bourbonites in check until the sixth when another trio of runs was counted.

Schrader was sent in to twirl for the locals and while he displayed a little wildness in the three sessions had sufficient control to confine the score to the two tallies when in the fourth session he was hit on the finger by a batted ball and forced to retire from the game.

The visitors opened with a rush McElvy leading off with a clean single to right. Nicholson beat out a slow one down the third base line, McElvy going to third and scoring on a wild pitch. Seebach laid one in front of the plate and beat it out. Hasse grounded to Harrell and Nicholson was grounded at the plate. Rapp and Kyle rounded on Schrader.

The locals tied the score in their half. Harrell the first up, hit to right for three bases and crossed the rubber on McKernan's sacrifice to McElvy. Mayer and Maxwell hit into outs.

The visitors added another in the second assisted by Schrader's wild heave to Barnett. Konnick looked over four bad ones and scored when Schrader threw wild to first. Weeks taking third Yekes hit to Kuhlman and Weeks was caught off of third, Mayer to Kuhlman. McElvy grounded to Barnett.

Paris took a good lead in their half. Barnett walked and Goodman beat out a slow one to Yekes, and Kuhlman laid one down the third base line to Rapp, filling the bases. Barnett scored on a wild pitch. Cramer, who relieved Yekes, passed Streiker and Schrader fanned. Goodman and Kuhlman crossed the rubber when Harrell hit to right. McKernan flied to Hasse for the third out.

Harold, who relieved Schrader in the fourth was very effective and the Lawmakers were only able to hit him successful but three times during the remainder of the contest. In the sixth the locals added three more. Mayer singled past third and came all the way home on a wild throw. Maxwell fanned and Barnett drew his second pass and reached third on Kyle's error. Goodman singled scoring Barnett, stole second and scored on Streiker's safety through second.

The visitors looked dangerous in the eighth when with one down Hasse singled to center and Rapp followed with a double in the same territory. Hasse was nipped at the plate when Kyle grounded to Harrell and Konnick flied to Maxwell. The score:

Paris.....1 3 0 0 0 2 0 0 x-7

SATURDAY.

Paris came out the victor in a pretty contest Saturday afternoon when they defeated the Maysville club in an exciting ninth innning finish by a score of 3 to 2.

The game was stubbornly contested from the opening session and both clubs played championship ball. Shears and Romaine who opposed each other in the opening contest of the season about three weeks ago were pitted against each other. Both men were on their mettle and while Shears had decided the best of the argument in the number of safe bingles Romaine whiffed seven of the Bourbonites in the full nine sessions.

The game was replete with many brilliant plays bordering on sensational and Langenham, Maysville's left gardener, pulled down several drives that would have piled up a large number of tallies in the favor of the locals. Maxwell and Streiker played a fast game in the field for Paris, the latter in the eighth pulling down a drive from Romaine's bat after a long run.

While the Bourbonites accumulated a total of thirteen safeties in most instances Romaine was successful in keeping them so well scattered as to be of little benefit. In only two sessions did the locals fail to score a hit.

Paris counted first in the third innning although in the session previous they had a man on second and third with only one man out, and chances looking good for a score. In the third Harrell led off with a single to right and pilfered second. McKernan flied out to Williams and Mayer drove the ball to center for a base scoring Harrell. Maxwell and Barnett hit into outs.

The visitors were unable to get a man past the second base until the fifth, when McDonald secured the first hit of the game off of Shears and reached second on Langenham's sacrifice, scoring a moment later on Fisher's safe drive to center. Romaine

SPORTING NEWS LETTER

By C. H. ZUBER.

Cincinnati, May 29.—Just because a team is leading in its particular league these days is no reason why you or I should wager our next month's income on that aggregation winning the pennant this season. Of course, the team that is in the lead doesn't have to win as many games as the other fellows in order to land the flag; at the same time, the distance from now to the finish is much greater than the time a team already traveled by the various teams, and so it may be stated that many changes are possible between now and the time for going to press with the world's championship series. Take the experience of the Philadelphia Nationals for instance. A week ago they were feasting on tender meat and were occupying a commanding place in the National League race. Then along came the Chicagoans, handed them four wallop and brought the Quakers back to within easy hailing distance of two of the other teams in the first division. Little spurts or little slumps are likely to occur at any time among a majority of the big league teams, and it is this condition that is going to make the race uncertain for some time to come.

Manager Griffith has started much comment among the incredulous by making the bold assertion that the Reds have a good chance to land the pennant in the National League this season. Griffith bases this assertion upon the fact that he has the best batting and base running team in the League, is better supplied with catchers than any organization in existence, is strong in a majority of his fielding positions, and will have better than an average pitching staff when his twirlers get going properly. Of course, at the present moment, the team isn't working up to form, according to the Griffith dope; but when they get back home in June, watch their smoke.

Critics in the East would have us believe that Christy Mathewson, for ten years the greatest individual drawing card in the National League, has lost his grip and is rapidly retrograding as a twirler. If this is true, it will indeed prove a calamity for the National League, and particularly for the Giants. "Matty" has been the mainstay of the Giants since first he became identified with the team. Year after year he has kept the Gotham aggregation in the race, and year after year the public has flocked out to see him as it would flock to see no other player. Mathewson recently made $75,000 in a stock deal, so that even if his base ball days are over, he'll not starve. He will be seen on the mound as usual when the Giants come here shortly, although it is not likely that he will pitch in the Sunday game on June 11, which is one of the New York's dates on the local grounds.

That promises to be a nifty battle has-beens when Jimmy Britt and Battling Nelson get together on the Fourth of July, probably at San Francisco. These boys, who are classed with the stars of yesternight, have met on four previous occasions. Twice Britt was victorious, once did the decision go to Nelson, and once was no decision given. Chief interest in this particular battle hinges on the fact that the defeated man will go into retirement, for which followers of the lighting game up-to-date will be truly thankful.

There is much opposition among the honest supporters of the turf against the proposed matched race between Meridian, winner of the Kentucky Derby, and Governor Gray, who was beaten in that race by a scant length. It is pointed out that match races in the past have usually given rise to scandal, in many cases justified; and that in order that the turf may continue to show improvement in the matter of the general conduct of its affairs, it were wise to refrain from saying anything that would have a tendency to bring the honesty of the sport further into question.

Sport lovers of the middle west promise to be pretty numerous at the big Decoration Day automobile race at Indianapolis, when efforts will be made to lower the time for the 500 miles on an oval track. The fact that spills and accidents of various kinds are among the possibilities does not hinder the general seeker for excitement from attending these races, and it is estimated that 100,000 people will be present when the start is made at 10 o'clock in the morning. It is estimated that a pace better than 60 miles an hour will be maintained during the grueling contest.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so?

The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr.

Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce Pres., Buffalo, N.Y.

which went from this city to cheer their favorites to victory.

Paris assumed control of the situation at the beginning when they counted three runs in the first session. Harrell walked and McKernan hit past third, Mayer drove the ball to left for a home run; Harrell and McKernan scores; Maxwell grounded out to short; Barnett flied to McDonald, Goodman walked and Kuhlman flied out to Poland.

Another was added in the second after Streiker and Hauser had gone out on flies and Harrell hit to center for a home run.

Maysville counted first in the fifth when Friedley doubled to right after two were down and scored on Mack's drive to center for two bases.

Paris annexed another in the sixth. Maxwell fanned, Goodman beat out a slow one, Kuhlman tripled to left scoring Goodman.

In this inning Maysville put over their last run of the game, Williams tripped to center and scored on Streiker's wild throw.

Three in the seventh was the best Paris could do. Harrell and McKernan were out and Mayer singled to left. Maxwell followed with a triple to center scoring Mayer and Barnett lifted the ball to the left garden for a homer. After Maxwell and Mayer were out in the ninth Barnett lifted the ball to left for his second homer. The score:

MONDAY.

In a fast game featured by the sensational fielding of the locals Paris took the game from Lexington at White Park yesterday afternoon by a score of 3 to 1 and took the lead in the Blue Grass pennant race.

The contest was brilliant throughout. Schrauder, who was on the mound for the locals, showed much improvement over his former games and at no time did he allow the visitors a look-in.

Kuhlman starred for the locals both with the stick and in the field. He pulled off three plays that were of a sensational order and out of four times up secured three hits.

The locals started the ball to rolling in their half of the first inning. Harrell was given a free ride to the first station and advanced to second on McKernan's sacrifice. Mayer flied to Sewell and Maxwell drew a base. Kimbro fumbled Barnett's hot ground ball, Harrell scoring and Barnett reaching first to be forced at second on Goodman's grounder to Viox.

In the third session two hits and a sacrifice put another run over for Paris. McKernan was first up and hit safely to right field. Mayer sacrificed and Maxwell grounded to Kimbro. Barnett doubled, scoring McKernan. Goodman grounded to Viox for the third out.

The visitors made their lone tally in the sixth inning. Vallandingham waited and walked and reached second on Viox's sacrifice. Kimbro reached first on Harrell's error. Vallandingham taking third, scoring on Long's hit to left. Ellis fanned and Yancey hit a line drive to right, which Goodman took after a hard run.

Paris counted their last run in their half on three hits. Maxwell doubled, Barnett fanned and Goodman drove the ball to center for a base. Maxwell was caught at the plate, Goodman going to the second station. Kuhlman followed with a single scoring Goodman. Streiker grounded to Long for the third out. The score:

Pennant to Be Raised June 20.

Pennant day will be observed in this city on June 20, when the pennant carried off by the Bourbonites last season will be unfurled to the breezes at White Park. On this occasion the Colts and Bourbonites will meet on the local lot. Appropriate exercises incident to the raising of the pennant will be arranged.

Hard Week for the Bourbonites.

This week will be a hard one for the Bourbonites from the fact that they will meet every club in the league with the exception of Winchester and play seven games, two of which will be pulled off today.

The boys have been going at a lively clip and are putting up a snappy game, and are deserving of large crowds and more enthusiastic greetings.

This morning the Bourbonites will meet the Colts at White Park. The game will be called at 10 o'clock. This afternoon they will journey to Lexington for a game. Wednesday afternoon Frankfort will be the attraction in this city and on Thursday the Colts will be here for the second game of the week. Friday Paris will play at Lexington and on Saturday will be at home to the River Men.

Sunday afternoon the Pioneers will furnish the entertainment.

An Interesting Entertainment.

Miss Nannie Barbee, the noted dialect reader, will give a recital at the Presbyterian church on Thursday night at eight p. m. for the benefit of the choir. She will be assisted by the choir. Admission for adults will be 50 cents, children 25 cents. This will no doubt be a very interesting entertainment and should be liberally patronized.

and Mack flied out.

The locals again assumed the lead in the eighth. Mayer hit safely the second time and Maxwell beat out a bunt in front of the plate. Barnett followed with a pop fly just behind the pitcher, reaching first safely and clogging the bases. Goodman drove the ball to deep center and on the out Mayer crossed the rubber. Kuhlman flied to Langenham for the last out.

Two hits and a sacrifice in the ninth counted another run for Maysville and again put the contest in doubt. Friedly, who was sent in to bat for Williams, who had faced Shears three times and whiffed the wind, drove the sphere to center for a clean hit and was advanced a peg by McAleese's sacrifice. Friedly went to third on McDonald's out and scored when Langenham hit a hot one over third base. Langenham was caught in an effort to steal, Mayer to Harrell, retiring the side.

The winning run was scored in the ninth session with only one out. Streiker, who had secured the only extra base hit of the game came to the bat and drove the ball to center for a base. Shears followed with a hit to right and both men were advanced a base on Harrell's sacrifice. Roamine deliberately walked McKernan, filling the bases. Mayer flied to Poland, who after a long run dropped the ball, Streiker crossing the rubber. The score:

Lower Tax Rate.

The City Council met in regular session Thursday night and took up the question of the tax levy for 1911.

Mayor Hinton asked that the $1.50 poll tax which has heretofore been paid by only a few and worked an injustice on the small property holder be dropped, and that the tax rate be reduced as much as possible.

Mr. W. O. Hinton, Chairman of the Finance Committee, reported that the assessment as revised by the supervisors, showed a total of $3,116,595, which was a slight increase over last year. He estimated that it would be necessary to increase the levy for school purposes 5 cents more than last year, in order to meet the increased expense made necessary by the growth of the school. Yet with this increase, he estimated that it would be possible to reduce the total amount of the tax rate 5 cents and recommended that the following levy for this year be made:

For General Purposes $0.65
For Sinking Fund35
For School Purposes30
For Public Library05
Making the levy $1.35 on the $100 of assessable property.

The Council by unanimous vote approved this recommendation and passed this levy.

This is 5 cents less than last year and 10 cents less than the year before. Yet with this reduction in the tax rate, the present administration has been able to keep the city in a condition that is equalled by very few cities in the State.

The city's streets and finances at the present time are in excellent condition, due entirely to the consistent and untiring efforts of Mayor Hinton.

LOOKING FOR MICA
By M. QUAD
Copyright, 1910, by Associated Literary Press.

It was a queer coincidence that brought the three men together at a table in a cheap restaurant. There was Moses Ickstein, who had just failed in the clothing business. He had figured to fail at a profit, but there had been a hitch in his calculations, and he was about done for.

There was Jim Greene, a newspaper man. That is, he had been employed on various newspapers without credit to them or him.

There was Dick Grahame, a shyster lawyer, who had been disbarred and was thinking if he should turn lecturer and expose the rest of the profession.

These three men were eating cheap dinners. Between mouthfuls they sized each other up. None of the three sized another up as an honest man, and this fact warmed them to each other. The meal had been almost finished, however, before Mr. Ickstein ventured to observe:

"Gentlemen, this is a hard world."

"It is," replied Mr. Greene.

"No one can be an honest man any more," said Mr. Ickstein.

"If he tries to be honest he fails and has to pay 90 cents on the dollar," continued the speaker.

"Gentlemen, we three are honest men. We must have the interests of our country more at heart. We must go out in to the park and sit down on a bench and talk in confidence. Because of my clothing business you must not distrust me. Because of your business I must not distrust you."

The result of their talk was an understanding, and the result of the understanding was the organizing of the Great Western Mica company. Mr. Greene could write luridly, and he was to manage the advertising.

The public caught on to the ads. slowly. It was used to gold and silver mine ads, but this was a mica mine, and it didn't guarantee to pay over 50 per cent dividends for the first twelve months.

Now and then a minister or a widow sent in a poor $5 for investment, and thus the office rent was paid, but none of the trio bought himself an auto.

"We should have promised 100 per cent dividends," growled Mr. Ickstein.

"We should have made it 150," added Mr. Greene.

"Two hundred at the very least," announced Mr. Grahame.

"But still we may add to the prosperity of the country by being not too honest," continued Mr. Ickstein as he sawed away at his steak. "Gentlemen, into the office this afternoon there came a sucker. He was good to look upon. In his hair there was hayseed. Among his whiskers were long straws. He was the innocent of the valley."

"And he wanted stock?" was asked. "Better than that. For stock he cared not. For the land he cared a great deal. Having purchased three more cows, he must have more land for pasture. See?"

"But that land is a mountain peak!" exclaimed Mr. Grahame.

"So I did not explain, but so the innocent man from the valley seemed to know. He said that the higher up a mountain he could get his cows the higher prices he could get for his milk and butter."

"And he will buy it?"

"If the price is right. Gentlemen, it is up to us to think. Have we been too honest? If not, then why have we not met with prosperity? A too honest man has too little to offer the public. We have offered but 50 per cent dividends."

"But the savings banks offer only 4 per cent," protested Greene, who was responsible for putting the mica dividends so low.

"It is true, but a savings bank is not a mica mine. It has a granite building, with bronze wings on the front doors. It has stained glass windows. It has a president who rides in an automobile. It does not permit the faker to come in and sell suspenders and lead pencils. Ah, a savings bank is different—very different."

"But about the sucker?"

"He will take that cow pasture at $1,500 and let us out. I am to let him know tomorrow."

"That's five hundred apiece," said Greene.

"And in a lump," added Grahame.

"And we can take the money and advertise the Arctic Peach company, with dividends at 125. This time we must not be too honest. The public loves him not. It sends him too few checks. It is then agreed that the sucker shall have this mountain peak cow pasture."

The sucker called next day, and the deal was closed. The money was divided, and the three went their separate ways. It was a year later when Mr. Greene met Mr. Ickstein on the street.

"You see—you see!" shouted the latter as he raised his hand skyward.

"I see what?"

"You see the too honest men. You see only 50 per cent dividends. You see we make nothing."

"Oh, yes, I see."

"And you see the sucker. You see the cow pasture. You see we sell out?"

"Yes, I see all that."

"But you don't see, you can't see, you will never see, that it was a silver mine was sold for $1,500 and the innocent sucker is taking out $1,000,000 worth of ore a month? Oh, this too much honesty! It will be the ruin of our country yet!"

The Brown Pivot-Beam Riding Cultivator.

Fool Treadles attached to the Beams which connect with the sleeve arch in front, so that the forward pressure of the foot shafts the beams in their lateral movement.

When the beams are yoked together with our unique Adjustable Spreader, the forward motion of the operator's foot moves the beams in a like direction, and when used independently, a small coil spring on each beam is brought into action, so when pressing forward with the foot, the beams move away from the plant and without any effort on the part of the operator the spring brings them back to the row.

With this construction, any desired penetration is secured through Brown's Patent Hitch in connection with levers; and in addition, the operator has the advantage of pressing directly on the beam with the foot, thus enabling him to perfectly regulate the depth of plowing regardless of the irregularity of the soil.

The power or leverage through the agency of these foot treadles is practically double that of any other device and the action on the beams is not only powerful but the beams respond quickly to the pressure of the foot.

Distance between beams can be changed quickly without operator leaving the seat. Movable axles so that wheels can be adjusted to track any desired distance apart.

This cultivator is easily adjusted to balance with any weight of operator. A test will prove it the best.

Improved Motorcycles.
By recent changes made in the design of the motorcycle its appearance is greatly improved by making use of the tubes of the frame for the storage of many of the parts which are now hung to it. For this purpose it is necessary to make the tubing a trifle heavier.

It is proposed to manufacture paper from pulped blue-gum timber. Tests have been carried out at English paper mills and are said to give a product equal to that made from African esparto grass.

LIQUID CURES ECZEMA WHERE SALVE FAILS

In regard to skin diseases medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT. A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. D. Prescription, penetrates to the disease germs and destroys it, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 25-cent trial bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.

ALL MY PIMPLES GONE

Girl Tells How a Blotchy Skin Was Cleansed By a Simple Wash.

"I was ashamed of my face," writes Miss Minnie Pickard of Altamahaw, N. C. "It was all full of pimples and scars, but after using D. D. D. Prescription I can say that now there is no sign of that Eczema, and that was three years ago."

D. D. D. has become so famous as a cure and instant relief in Eczema and all other serious skin diseases, that its value is sometimes overlooked in clearing up rash, pimples, blackheads, and all other minor forms of skin impurities.

The fact is, that while D. D. D. is so penetrating that it strikes to the very root of Eczema or any other serious trouble, the soothing Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients are so carefully compounded there is no wash for the skin made that can compare with this great household remedy for every kind of skin trouble.

D. D. D. is pleasant to use, perfectly harmless to the most delicate skin, and absolutely reliable. A 25-cent bottle will give you positive proof of the wonderful effectiveness of this great remedy.

GOOD LIVER REMEDY FREE

When you suffer from any form of indigestion it is always well to take something for the liver, as usually the trouble lies there. If you are bilious, have a bloated feeling after eating, if you belch, if your skin is yellowish you may be sure it is liver trouble.

What you need is something to stir up the liver, to arouse the gastric juices so that they will aid in the digestion of your food. A very good remedy for this, and one highly recommended by those who have used it, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepin, which you can obtain of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. But if you have any doubt about its merits, and would prefer to try it first, send your address to Dr. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

The commencement exercises of the Millersburg Military Institute opened Sunday morning with the baccalaureate sermon by Dr. J. W. Porter pastor of the First Baptist church of Lexington. The spacious drill hall of the college, with a seating capacity of seven hundred, is by far the largest building in town and was practically full. The musical program was very good, especially the trio and chorale work by the cadets. Dr. Porter in his address was at his best. He is not a stranger in our community and is always a welcome visitor. Most of our people know what to expect before hearing him and were not disappointed. On a whole it was one of the best services ever conducted in the drill hall.

The fourteenth annual competitive drill of the M. M. I. took place Monday morning at 9:30 on M. M. I. grounds. The entire battalion met the Paris Military Band at the 8:30 train and escorted them to the grounds where the drill was witnessed by one of the largest crowds ever seen on the field. The exercises were equal to those of former years and the contest at the manual of arms as well as the drill by companies was warmly contested. The medal in the manual of arms was won by Cadet Harris, of Frankfort. In 1910 Company B won the flag over Company C. Yesterday Company B was again awarded the flag for another year. The judges were Ex-Cadet Alex Hawes, of Chicago, Jesse Miller, Lexington and Allen Ingles, Millersburg. More than forty guests were in the house during Monday and Monday night and the Paris band dispensed good music during the day.

Misses Vaughn, Wilmott and Lowry, of Lexington; Miss Tommy Brown, Hutchison; Miss Katherine Kelly, Paris; Ex-Cadet O. C. Rankin, Cynthiana; ex-Cadet David Munich, San Francisco, Cal.; ex-Cadet Frances Wharton, New York; Miss Lizzie C. Wigglesworth and Miss Anna Ammerman, Cynthiana; Mrs. J. B. Shipp, Midway; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McDonald, North Middletown; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blackburn, Georgetown; Mrs. Martha Thomason, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Young, Nicholasville; Mrs. Herman Pushin, Danville; Mrs. D. M. Curry and daughter, Myers; Mrs. John May and Mrs. Chas. Millward, Lexington; Miss Sue Stone and Mrs. Emma Lusby, Georgetown; Prof. McBride, Richmond; Mr. Alex Hawes, Chicago.

The home was attractively decorated with syringa, bowls and vases of this dainty May flower ornamenting the mantels, cabinets and walls.

The guests were informally received by the hostess and Miss Hinton after which they were provided with cards and pencils and invited to join a "Traveling Party" guessing at the stations which were visited. This proved to be very amusing and much merriment was caused by the answers submitted. At 12 o'clock an elegant course luncheon was served at small tables, which were decorated with baskets of flowers tied with pink tulie bows, and at each plate was a tiny basket decorated in the same manner.

The place cards were cupids and rings, and the souvenirs were small traveling cases, containing little silk bags filled with rice.

The guests were: Misses Edna Earle Hinton, Elizabeth Hinton, Mary Fithian Hutchcraft, Rachel Wiggins, Mary Woodford, Elizabeth Steele and Bessie Peed of Mayslick; Mesdames Duke, also of Mayslick; Jesse Turney, John T. Hinton, W. O. Hinton, Ed Hinton, Chas. McMillan, John Davis, Withers Davis, Wm. B. Ardery, Clell Turney and James W. Wodford.

Miss O'Brien and Mrs. Buck will have charge of the register.

Fourteen splendid young people will receive diplomas of graduation from the High School this year. Elder Morgan will preach the annual class sermon at the Christian church Sunday evening, June 4, at 7:30. Let all the people come.

A large and a very strong class will graduate from the grammar school this year. Graduating exercises Wednesday evening, June 7, at eight o'clock. Thursday evening, June 8 at eight o'clock High School Commencement. Each of these programs will be short and we trust, interesting.
